

WORLD CONGRESS OF AUDIOLOGY 2016
INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF AUDIOLOGY STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

INSTRUCTIONS AND APPLICATION

The International Society of Audiology (ISA) is pleased to offer a small number of student scholarships to the 33rd World Congress of Audiology, to be held from September 18 to 21, 2016 in Vancouver. Please read the following instructions carefully to ensure that your application adheres to the eligibility criteria and selection procedures.

The scholarships, in the amount of U.S. $1,500 are sponsored by the ISA. The scholarship is to help cover the costs of:

- Student registration fees for the WCA2016 (all scholars must register for the Congress.)
- Transportation/airfare to the Congress venue
- Accommodation during the Congress

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants must meet the following eligibility requirements*:

1. You must be a full time student in an institution of higher learning taking courses in audiology and preferably working towards a degree in audiology or hearing science. Graduates who will be completing their degree in 2016 may also apply;
2. You must be a current Student Member of the International Society of Audiology;
3. The applicant should have the paper accepted by the WCA2016 for presentation. If the student has more than one paper accepted by the WCA2016, s/he should submit only one paper for consideration; and
4. The research should represent the applicants' own work and have not been presented or published elsewhere.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCESS:

1. A brief profile (a photo, name, a brief bio about him/herself and the current research project) for display in the Congress information and/or the ISA website.
2. An abstract and a 2 to 3 page description of the research project they would be submitting for inclusion in the WCA2016 Scientific Program. The research may be in either clinical audiology or basic audiological science. The description should clearly outline:
 - a. The challenge/problem being addressed by the project;
 - b. The hypotheses and/or aim of the project;
 - c. The methodology that was employed;
 - d. The results that have been/will be obtained;
 - e. The discussion surrounding the results; and
 - f. The conclusions drawn from the project, and its significance to audiology.
3. A letter of recommendation from the research supervisor/advisor.
4. A short (maximum 100 words) statement of why the student believes it would be valuable for them to attend the WCA2016.

5. A proof that the abstract has been accepted by the Congress Scientific Committee, ASAP when it becomes available.
6. The Selection Committee of the International Society of Audiology will judge the applications and determine the final scholars. An effort will be made to select scholars representing the worldwide make-up of the Society.

OBLIGATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. The selected scholars will only be able to receive the scholarship after presenting their papers at the Congress.
2. The applicant will personally present the accepted paper at the WCA2016.
3. ISA student scholars are expected to be actively engaged in furthering audiological research and services locally and internationally.
